

Media Release

For immediate release
July 20, 2017

Art Gallery of Alberta announces call for submissions for large on-site installation

Alberta artists are invited to submit proposals for an installation in Manning Hall

Edmonton, AB—The Art Gallery of Alberta announces a call for submissions for new work from Alberta artists to be on temporary display in Manning Hall. A prominent, heavy traffic exhibition space on the first floor, Manning Hall is used by the AGA for high profile events and public and educational programs such as: exhibition openings, All Day Sunday family activities, Art for Lunch, as well as for external facility rentals.

"The AGA has always been a proud champion of the visual arts in Alberta," explains Catherine Crowston, AGA executive director.

"Manning Hall is a prominent, large scale space that encourages exploration and inspiration upon each gallery visit. It is the first art experience upon entry and as such, its place of prominence offers an extraordinary opportunity to showcase the work of Alberta artists."

Submissions will be accepted no later than Monday, September 4 at 5 pm. The selected art work will be on temporary display at the AGA from February 17, 2018 to early 2019.

Please visit for more information: www.youraga.ca/manning-hall-call-for-submissions/

For media requests or to schedule an interview please contact Lynda Vang.

- 30 -

Media Contact

Lynda Vang, AGA public relations coordinator

T: 780-392-2468

M: 780-246-1488

E: lynda.vang@youraga.ca

About the Art Gallery of Alberta

The Art Gallery of Alberta is a centre of excellence for the visual arts in Western Canada, connecting people, art and ideas. The AGA is focused on the development and presentation of original exhibitions of contemporary and historical art from Alberta, Canada and around the world. The AGA also offers a full-range of contemporary and historical art from Alberta, Canada and around the world. Founded in 1924, the AGA maintains a collection of over 6,000 objects and is the oldest cultural institution in Alberta and the only museum in the province solely dedicated to the exhibition and preservation of art and visual culture. www.youraga.ca